Message 1: Email (to your course instructor, Dr. Ahmed)

Subject: Assignment

Dear Sir,

I am writing to you because of the assignment that we have to submit soon, and I have been having a lot of difficulties with it because of several things that have been happening recently, which have made it quite hard for me to complete everything on time, and I was thinking that perhaps you might be able to give me a few more days to finish it properly, as I really want to make sure that I do a good job and submit something that meets the requirements, so please let me know what you think about this whenever you get a chance.

Thanks and regards,

Subject: Request for Assignment Submission Extension

Dear Dr. Ahmed,

I am writing to request a short extension for the upcoming assignment. Due to some recent personal and academic commitments, I have been facing difficulties completing it by the deadline.

I would appreciate a few extra days to complete the assignment properly and ensure that it meets the required standards. Please let me know if an extension would be possible.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Best regards,
Sharjeel Ahmad

Message 2: WhatsApp (to a classmate)

Hey! So basically, I have been working on the assignment for quite some time now, and there are a lot of things going on at the moment, including some personal stuff and other academic work, which is making everything really difficult to manage. I was wondering if you could possibly talk to the teacher about the deadline because I think it would be better if we could get some extra time, and I am not really sure what everyone else is thinking about this, but I thought I should tell you all of this first. Anyway, please let me know what you think whenever you are free.

Corrected Message

Hey! I'm finding it difficult to manage the assignment deadline alongside other academic work. Do you think we could ask the teacher for a short extension? Maybe we could discuss it with the rest of the class and see if others feel the same way. Let me know what you think!

Message 3: LinkedIn message (to a potential employer or hiring manager)

Hello Ms. Khan,

I hope you are doing well. I wanted to reach out because I have been looking for opportunities in the field of marketing for quite some time, and I came across your profile while exploring different companies and professionals working in this area. I have completed some coursework and projects related to marketing, and I think it would be really great if you could tell me a little bit about your career journey, the company you work for, and whether there might be any opportunities available for someone like me in the future. I know you must be very busy, but I thought I would send you a message and see what happens.

Thank you, and I hope to hear from you soon.

Best regards,

Corrected LinkdIn Message

Hello Ms. Khan,

I came across your profile while exploring opportunities in marketing and was interested in learning more about your career journey. I have completed relevant coursework and projects, and I am keen to develop my skills further in this field.

If you have a moment, I would appreciate any advice you could share with someone starting a career in marketing. I would also be grateful if you could let me know about any suitable opportunities at your company.

Thank you for your time. I look forward to connecting with you.

Best regards,
Sharjeel Ahmad

Overall thoughts on the major differences between the three modes of communication.

Email	WhatsApp	LinkenIn
Email requires a formal and professional tone, a clear subject line, and a well-organized message. It is suitable for communicating with instructors and making official requests	WhatsApp is informal, friendly, and conversational. Messages should be short and direct, using simple language appropriate for communication with classmates.	LinkedIn requires a professional yet approachable tone. Messages should be concise, establish a clear purpose, and show respect for the recipient's time. It is useful for networking and exploring career opportunities.
